Auckland’s Accessible Bus Routes

The Inner LINK, City LINK and Outer LINK are three of Auckland’s bus routes that have wheelchair accessible buses. They are great for getting around the CBD and for seeing some of Auckland’s attractions such as the War Memorial Museum and the Newmarket and Ponsonby shopping areas.

Most LINK bus stops and buses have audible and electronic real-time passenger information. Simply push the yellow button at the bus stop signs. Auckland Transport has recently revamped bus routes around central Auckland with the aim of making buses more direct, reliable and best of all, accessible for wheelchair and pushchair users.

Be. Accessible – Towards a 100% Accessible Auckland

A 100% accessible city is one that has no barriers – physical or otherwise – that prevent people from participating in society.

This Access Map is designed to make it easier for you to get around Newmarket, Auckland. Newmarket is part of a lively, diverse and exciting city with many wonderful places to experience. One of Auckland’s defining features is that it is situated on a ring of volcanoes. While this means that you can get great views of our beautiful harbours, it also means that journeys can involve going up or down hills.

This map highlights a range of features to help make your visit more enjoyable and accessible. It highlights the locations of important features such as accessible car parks, toilets and key bus routes around Newmarket and the CBD.

We’ve worked with Aucklanders to develop this map. It’s another initiative to help improve access for everyone.
